

Privacy Policy

This is the privacy policy of M2solution.net. This document explains M2solution policies for the collection, use, and disclosure of personal information.

The information we collect

M2solution collects information by various methods including information actively provided by its lead providers, its customers and information arising from customer surveys and general feedback.

The types of personal information we collect include name, contact information, identification information, credit information and id photographs. We may record call to or from our sales/customer service representatives for purposes of accuracy, performance reviews, training, and general quality assurance.

How we use this information

This information is used to aid in the provision of our various products and services, including customer service, accounting, billing, collections, and the marketing of other products services.

M2solution may use aggregate or anonymous information for various uses for itself and third parties.

Security

Personal information is stored in a database with highly encrypted format. They are protected by security measures appropriate to the nature of the information.

Accessing Information

Individuals may review their personal information contained in M2solution database files by contacting the M2solution privacy officer. If an individual believes that any of their personal information is inaccurate, we will make appropriate corrections.

Cookies

Cookies are used by M2solution for the convenience of our users. Cookies automatically authenticate the user. A user can access the M2solution web site with the cookie feature turned off. However, in doing so they may find themselves challenged for username and password information on multiple occasions. M2solution also uses cookies to track user's visits and uses that information to improve the user experience.
